TO OBSERVE

KRISHNA JANAMASHTAMI

Lord Krishna's birth occurred during the night of a raging rainstorm with lightning and thunder. Lord Krishna's mother Devaki, was in a dungeon --a prison-- where she had been kept for many years, along with her husband Vasudeva. Devaki's evil brother, King Kamsa, had imprisoned them so that he could destroy this baby she was about to have. The king had heard from fortune-tellers that this son of theirs would grow up to be a great power and would dethrone him; and that Krishna would be the restorer of righteousness. This would spoil all of the wicked plans Kamsa had in mind for promoting his own power and glory.

Please come out and join us in celebrating Lord Krishna's Birth

"Aakaashaath Patitam Toyam, Yathaa Gachchhati Saagaramh

Sarvadeva Namaskaaraanh, Keshavam Pratigachchhati"

Just as every rain drop that falls from the sky flows into the Ocean, the same way every prayer offered to any deity flows to Lord Krishna. I bow to Lord Krishna.
